

This proposed Rule is useless. It will only serve to discourage LEGITIMATE flight instruction for LEGITIMATE citizens, and do nothing to discourage terrorism. The terrorists have already proven able to get around government beauracracy, and are too smart to get caught by such stupid rules. I do not want to pay $130 and go through a paperwork jungle to get my Commercial ticket, for the sake of this make-work TSA excercise in futility. Apply Stereotyping to catch terrorists, the government did it in WWII to our Japanese citizens...
